After many urgings and promptings from other unions and councils in the Maritime region and across the nation, the Mount has at last, decided something should be done about National Student's Day.

Margie Gillis, Executive Vice-President of the Student's Council has been appointed as coordinator of NSD here on campus. The Council's plan of attack is to inform the University body - faculty, administration and students - of the plight of students and post-secondary institutions.

The following is taken from a NUS/UNE leaflet on NSD:

"1976 is a critical year for Canadian post-secondary education. Politicians and some members of the public question the role of technical, university and college programs, yet offer no solutions.

National Student Day is Canadian students' response to the critical situation. It is our opportunity to widen discussion about post-secondary education and make a positive contribution.

National Student Day focuses on access to education because students have been the only group with a primary interest in fully equal access to colleges, universities and technical institutes.

Some of the National Student Day themes are:

TUITION FEES

Tuition fee increases and government support for them have grown quickly in the past two years. Students' fees only cover about 10% of the costs of post-secondary education, yet studies show that they

OUTREACH TUTORING

Outreach Tutoring is a project through which university students volunteer to tutor children who are having difficulties with their school work. The project is based at Dalhousie with an office in the Education Building at 1460 Oxford Street; although the tutors represent all three universities in the Halifax area, it also includes grade twelve students in St. Pat's High, Queen Elizabeth High and J.L. Ilsley.

Tutoring is usually done on a one to one basis, with the tutor spending a few hours a week with the child, giving them encouragement and support in their school work.

It has been observed by the tutors in the past that the main problems of the children are lack of motivation, lack of parental support, unawareness of what they are being taught, limited space to study and lack of control by their parents.

The majority of tutors feel that they assisted the children academically, however, help was also given through the tutor as a friend in areas of personality development, improved communication in the family, promoting interests and changing attitudes.

In the past, projects have included the regular tutoring program which includes the bulk of participating tutors as well as the following:

- a recreation tutoring program with students from King's College working together with children from Ross Road School, Preston every Saturday morning at King's College.

- four remedial reading programs with students tutoring children from Richmond, Bloomfield, St. Joseph's - Alexander MacKay and Alexandra with the aid of the schools' teachers. - a program whereby students from the Mount tutor children from B.C. Silver Elementary School and Rockingstone Heights School.

This year we also hope to initiate a drama program working out of the Police Boy's Club in the North End of Halifax.

We have a handbook for tutors as well as a children's book of their own writings, from a past summer project. Also our resources have been enlarged and are now in the Outreach Office. These include books, texts, articles, magazines, supplies for the making of various games, folders, etc. These resources are all available for our tutors to use in their sessions. Drop in to our office or call us at 422-5833.

Why are YOU an OUTREACH TUTOR???

Various tutors' answers were:

- Does there have to be a reason? I question if I really have a choice at all. Maybe I was meant to be an Outreach Tutor.

- I hope to be able to put into this project as much as I possibly can. I really don't have any expectations as such - I just hope that I am accepted for what I am. I am also looking forward to making a real friendship because kids as friends have a lot to show and teach everyone.

- I'm one of the lucky few from a depressed area and want to help.

- Trust and friendship among human beings is rare today. I want to reach within myself and find a rapport with children. I think this is the basis of a good teaching experience. So, I'm an Outreach Tutor.

Reach out & give some kid YOUR support!

Lend them a hand -

They appreciate it.

Picaro's New Editor

New Council put on chopping block

THE PICARO NEEDS YOU!!
Without a sufficient staff, the Picaro cannot subsist and grow. This is why I ask you, the students of M.S.V.U. to assist me in the development of your newspaper.

A number of staff positions on the newspaper are open to you, these being: reporting, advertising, layout, typing, proofreading.

Experience is not necessary, only willingness and the desire to work on a newspaper are needed. In the near future, I hope to get together with interested students in order to arrange workshops dealing with organization and drafting of a newspaper.

Any ideas would be appreciated, and I invite you to come down to the Picaro to voice your ideas and to become involved in the newspaper.

Thank-you,
Stephanie Pinkham
Picaro Editor

(Anyone wishing to get in touch with me come down to the newspaper office in Rosaria or contact me in Vincent Hall)

Fraternity

Dear Sir:

What has happened to the proposed male fraternity here at the Mount? It seems a shame that all that enthusiasm and interest has come to naught.

Perhaps the guys could use the following suggestion: rather than attempting the big job of forming a brand new fraternity, the Mount could become a chapter of an already established group. This way, help is received from an outside, knowledgeable source, and while the Mount is in a colony state (prior to becoming a chapter) much valuable information could be gleaned.

If the males really want to get together in an organized form, there is no reason they should be deterred so easily. All that is needed is a little interest and co-operation from the guys, but it is up to them...

Sports

Dear Sir:

Please allow me space in your paper to express my views on a topic of definite importance.

First of all I would like to commend the staff of the Picaro for their dedication to our university newspaper. It is unfortunate however, that interest seems to be lagging in other activities which are for the benefit of the student body. There is a great deal of talent among our students which could be utilized successfully in the various clubs or sports activities. Take our sports, for example. Surely there are more students that are well qualified than have come forth to participate. Hopefully more will be eager to support their representatives at game time. This applies to other activities and clubs as well.

An Interested Student

Dear Sir:

It has come to my attention that the Student Council who's platform was to "CLEAN UP" has been in reality a comedy of errors. At the first meeting of this new council, non-members were seconding motions and voting. At an in-camera meeting held on Oct 22, non members of council were present thus making the in-camera portion of the meeting invalid. Apparently one non-member present at this meeting dug up some slanderous information regarding one of the applicants. It is too bad council lets situations like this sway their already questionable judgement. I think that these goings-on should be brought to the attention of the students so they can see exactly what their "CLEAN UP" committee is doing.

Destiny

With reams of paper
Pen in hand
A thousand words at my command!
Visions - dreams - all in my head -
This is the time they must be said!
Endlessly flowing in the night - Oh damn. I blew out the light.

I had a joke on the world
I told them I was another person.
Different from me, the
real me...
They couldn't ever know -
they believed me.
Such a funny, funny joke..
But now nobody knows who
I am.

JUST A FRIEND

Just someone to talk to,
Just a friend, not foe.
He is in her every dream
The one she has come to know.

Just a friend, she used to say,
Just a friend from school.
But, oh, how she is playing how she is playing the fool.

He left one fine spring morning,
It hurt her deep inside.
And there she sat alone,
Alone she sat and cried.

And thou sweet maiden hath in presence gone,
But in spirit thou shalt forever within,
Remain.

BURSARIES

COUNSELLING

DON'T WAIT TILL CHRISTMAS!

Lots of us suffer from a form of nerves known as test anxiety -- in fact, between 15% to 20% of us. So if that includes you, why not find out how to start controlling it?

It's easier for two or three together to work at it, so collect up some friends in the same boat, if you like, and see Jean Stirling, the counsellor.

BURSARIES

In order to obtain their Bursaries in January, Nova Scotia students are reminded that they must turn in their Certificate of Registration Forms (yellow sheet) to the Registrars office or to Mrs. Brousseau, The Student Aid Officer, Student Services Dept., and they must fill out and return to the Provincial Student Aid Office, their report on Summer Savings Forms (blue sheet). If this is not done Bursary Cheques WILL NOT be issued.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

Course evaluations are a very important facet of university life.

Data collected, if used properly can benefit you in many ways. Why not get involved to help yourself.

If you would like to serve on the Course Evaluations Committee, contact:

Nancy Hoegg
Student Council or 4621 Vincent Hall

FOOD COMMITTEE

The Food Committee is seeking representatives from the following:

- 2 - Birches
- 2 - Marillac
- 2 - Marywood
- 2 - Vincent Hall
- 2 - Non-Residents

Here is your chance to give us your opinions, ideas and suggestions. Join the Food Committee, anyone interested please contact Mrs. Brousseau in the Student Services Department Rosaria Hall.

The purpose of the Food Committee is to act as a liaison between the student body and the campus Food Service.

The Objectives:

- 1) To provide a medium for the review and evaluation of campus food services;
- 2) To dialogue on such matters as the type of service offered, food prices, cafeteria hours, student employment, and other matters pertaining to the food service policies;
- 3) To provide open meetings when the needs or the requests of students require it.

Absolutely no experience required -- JUST YOU!

Retro-active NSBursary Criteria

At a recent meeting of the Council of the Nova Scotia Confederation of University Faculty Assoc. the gravest concern was expressed at the decision of the Minister of Education, Dr. Maynard MacAskill, to modify with retroactive effect the criteria on the basis of which bursaries are awarded to university students. The NSCUFA is also opposed to the imposition of restrictions on the Nova Scotia students to hold a bursary while studying at a university outside the Atlantic region.

At the same meeting of the NSCUFA, Council gave consideration to possible courses of action it may take in the light of the fact that despite repeated requests since April, it has been unable to meet with Premier Regan to discuss the possible drastic reduction in federal support to post-secondary education in Nova Scotia. The omission is all the more glaring in the light of the fact that in recent months Premier Hatfield has twice met with the New Brunswick federation of university teachers and Premier Regan has received representatives of university administrations in this regard.

Released by Dr. Lois Vallely-Fischer, President, NSCUFA, October 6, 1976.

Now... more than ever the RCMP offers a rewarding career

If you've ever considered a career in law enforcement, now's the time to talk to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The opportunities have never been greater.

For instance, the RCMP is accepting applications from both men and women, married and single. And the salary scale has increased considerably. It starts at $12,000. per year ($230. weekly) with regular increases to $16,100. ($309. weekly) in the first four years.

If accepted as a member of the Force, you'll receive intensive training in all aspects of police work such as law, investigation, first aid and community relations. Then you'll be posted to a detachment where there's every chance to put your knowledge and talents to work; to earn promotion and, equally important, be proud of what you're doing for yourself and for Canada as a member of one of the finest police forces in the world.

So if you're a Canadian citizen 18 or over, in good physical condition and have completed Grade 11 or equivalent, think about a career with the RCMP. Call or write your nearest office or use the coupon. We'd like to tell you more.

LIQUOR POLICY Films

MOUNT LIQUOR COMMITTEE?

On October 21st, 1976, a meeting was held between the Nova Scotia Liquor Board and the MSVU administration and Students' Council. Present were, Mr. Anderson (NSLB), Sister Marie Gillen (Admin.), M.V. Merrigan (Admin.), A. Miner (Admin.), Ron Boutilier (S.C.), Dave Reader (S.U.), and Jacquie Banyard (S.C.).

The purpose of this meeting was to come to a workable agreement between all parties concerned, staying within the legal restrictions.

Prior to this time, Council had been forced to negotiate with representatives from the administration before each liquor event, to determine how the liquor would be distributed, how security would work, and other areas related to the running of that event. This created uncertainty and tension between the two parties, and everyone was relieved when Thursday's meeting ended.

Discussed at the meeting was the possibility of the Mount receiving a Special Premise License, which would allow events to run under the Wet/Dry system. It was agreed this license would be applied for in December, as the term is one calendar year. A Liquor Committee would be set up under this system, consisting of approximately five members. This committee would set down policies and regulations regarding all liquor events at the Mount, and all inquiries would be handled by these five members.

As far as anyone knows, events will be run as they have been in the past month, until such time as we come under the Special Premise License. We are uncertain whether this means running to the administration every week for permission to hold an event, or if an interim policy will be drawn up to tide things over until January.

ENTERTAINMENT

This year there is quite an amount of talk about entertainment at the Mount. The students are making it one of their main concerns. It is perfect to see such interest, concern, and enthusiasm. People are bringing forth constructive criticisms and new ideas, something rarely seen or heard before. We still have a few, and only a few who just complain and don't offer any help whatsoever. After working with entertainment last year and running some of the events this year, I can honestly say we DO have interest. There is not any problem at all to get people to work. Besides the paid workers, there are numerous students offering a free hand. The events are always sold out early, unfortunately, a problem of space. The populace that attend are students that are out for a good time. We don't see too many troublemakers around anymore. Everybody is working with each other, not against each other. For those of you who just complain: I'm sure if you thoroughly checked out the situation, you would be pleased with our events. Come down and offer a hand to find out what really happens - you'll find out how good it can be.

A perfect example is our past dance of Friday, Oct. 22/76. We sold out early and encountered no major problems. At the end of the event, nobody wanted to leave; the band was cheered back again and played a final encore.

A Beer & Chips is planned for this Wednesday, so here's your chance to check things out.

SKIING ANYONE ?

sugar loaf

This year there has been a ski trip to Sugarloaf planned. The total cost for the week is $200.00, all inclusive. That means that your two hundred dollars covers everything but your lunch and your drinks. There are flyers posted on campus and a good interest has been shown. What has been planned for the week as a tentative itinerary is as follows:

Feb. 20, Sunday; Leave Halifax and arrive at Sugarloaf that night.
Feb. 21, Monday; Ski all day, folk night at dorm.
Feb. 22, Tuesday; Ski all day, pub-crawling at night.
Feb. 23, Wednesday; Ski all day, informal dance at dorm.
Feb. 24, Thursday; Ski all day, night on the town.
Feb. 25, Friday; Ski, party with other skiers.
Feb. 26, Saturday; last day of skiing.
Feb. 27, Sunday; Leave for home.

These arrangements are merely tentative, and subject to change. There is a chance that we will have to leave a day earlier and return a day later than planned because of road conditions. We will still have six days of skiing though.

Accommodations at the ski dorm are not luxurious, and you will need a sleeping bag. However with this type of accommodation we have the advantage of much more freedom than would be possible in a hotel, to say nothing of the saving in cost. Breakfast and supper are going to be served there, and the bus will take us to the hill in the morning and return us at night.

This is open to all skiers upwards of seventeen years. Those under nineteen, however must have a signed document from their parents removing all responsibility from the tour organizer. This document must be witnessed by two people who are not members of the immediate family, and dated.

Those interested in going are urged to submit a fifty dollar deposit as soon as possible; this is refundable should something happen to make participation impossible. Should the tour be cancelled for any reason, such as lack of snow, all monies will be returned with the exception of five dollars.

All travel is by bus. This is mainly because of the cost and inconvenience of train travel. There is also the added benefit of having our own transportation for nights on the town.

There is a profit being made by the tour organizer as he does not qualify for student loans, and is not particularly fond of working during the summer. This profit is not, however, exorbitant, and the actual cost of this ski-week is well below what it would amount to, if done alone.

This is going to be a good time and I hope that you come. If you don't know how to ski you can still come down and take lessons for free. There is no better opportunity to learn and by the end of the week you'll be skiing easily.

If you plan to go, payment of the fifty dollar deposit can be made to either Margaret Ellis or Ed Gurney. The balance of fees must be in by Feb. 1st, 1977.

For anything that is not covered here, contact Ed Gurney or Margaret Ellis.

Ed Gurney

$3000 Profit?

Ed Gurney, a 1st year student at the Mount, has spent the last few weeks organizing a ski-trip to Sugar-Loaf. for Spring Break. At first glance the $200.00 deal seems pretty good, but a closer look will bring out a few interesting facts.

The $200.00 is broken down as follows:

$50 - transportation
$50 - hill fees/6days
$70 - accomodation/meals and $30 to the organizer - Ed Gurney. When you consider 95 people can be accommodated on the trip, $2,850 profit is earned. This certainly seems exorbitant to me!

When Mr. Gurney was confronted by students concerned with the large profit, he hopes to make, he stated "I'm only doing this for the money."

Further questioning brought forth the fact that Mr. Gurney plans to put himself thru university next year on the money he gets from other students via this proposed ski-trip.

While credit should be given for the time and effort being put into this endeavour single-handedly by Mr. Gurney, students should be informed that $30 is going from their pocket to his.

It is now up to those interested in the trip to decide how they want their money spent.

continue to be a significant financial barrier.

Most governments have made it clear that they see much higher fees as the ideal replacement for public financing. Many theories are used to support or oppose large fee increases.

National Student Day is a chance to think about how those theories could affect your and others' education. It took lengthy public debate to gain acceptance for subsidized post-secondary education, and that subsidization should not be removed without equal opportunity for public participation.

UNEMPLOYMENT

Concern about unemployment of graduates spreads. At the same time summer jobs disappear. The federal government says that creating jobs is a priority but in 1976 it eliminated 30,000 student jobs.

New members of the labour force have the hardest time finding permanent work, so future unemployment policy is a strong and immediate concern of students.

On and before November 9, you will be able to learn more about possible ways to ease the unemployment crisis, and can think about what you and other students might do to get such an easing.

STUDENT AID

The Canada Student Loans system opened educational opportunities but defects have emerged with the passing of time. Rigid criteria on parental contribution, summer savings, etc.; failure to provide for part-time students; artificially low living allowances - these are some of the defects which lock potential students outside the post-secondary system.

Students have a unique vantage point on the operation of student aid systems. We are the only group which can give reliable advice on the effect that a new system will have.

The National Student Day effort helps us review the present student aid situation and develop ideas about the kind of student aid system which should replace it.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

The trends in government policy which direct post-secondary education also direct the other social services in Canada. Working conditions and labour's ability to organize are equally subject to government policy.

By considering these concerns when looking at their own, students show social concern and responsibilities. Interest groups in other social services realize this, and are often the first allies of a student effort.

During the 1976 National Student Day campaign we can discover more about others' concerns, and thus be in a position to deal responsibly with public issues."

Whatever your Council plans to do on or before November 9th, it is for YOUR benefit and will only be successful if University members participate. If you have any ideas or concerns, please contact your Student's Council in Rosaria Hall, 443-4224.

Spend half an hour checking us out. We have a career possibility that will put you face to face with the human side of business.

The first step is to arrange a meeting with our on-campus recruiter. When you arrive, ask him what we're really like then tell him what you're really like. That should give each of you enough info to know if it's worth getting together again.

We'll be on campus at:

Mount St. Vincent University, November 10

We'd like to talk.
And listen.

ATHLETICS/RECREATION

An extra word has been added to the Athletics-Dept. - Recreation. It is hoped that this office (it's too small to be called a department) can provide some activities that will make campus-life more fun. The aim is to provide sports activities for everyone, not only the good athlete. So, if you keep saying to yourself, "I really must get out and do something other than sitting around", NOW is the time. Not everyone's wish can be granted but the following is a list of activities that are taking place and in which you are all welcome.

Yoga, offered on 3 days a week
Fitness, " on 4 days a week
Swimming, " on 1 day a week
Badminton instruction offered on 2 days a week.

Tennis instruction offered on 2 days a week.
Recreational basketball offered on 1 day a week.
Netball (women only) offered on 1 day a week.
Coed Badminton offered on 2 days a week.
Men's Badminton offered on 2 days a week.

Besides the above, the gym is free at various times and you are invited to use it to its fullest capacity.

N.B. All programs are Co-ed unless otherwise stated.

What if there were a list?

A list that said:
Our finest actors
weren't allowed to act.
Our best writers
weren't allowed to write.
Our funniest comedians weren't allowed to make us laugh.

What would it be like if there were such a list?
It would be like America in 1953.
