Office of the President

To the Class of 1977

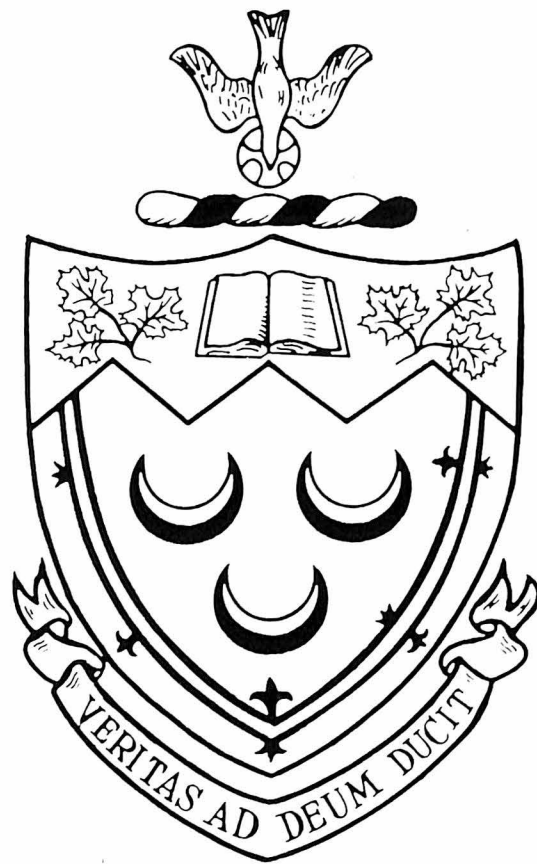

As you go forth from Mount Saint Vincent to pursue the goals you have set for yourselves, I would like to extend to you my congratulations on your achievements, and my best wishes for your continued success.

Each of you has spent some time in an institution which claims to be unique in several ways. Dedicated to the inculcation of Christian values and ideals, oriented in a special way to the education of women in the liberal arts and selected professions, the Mount has offered to each of you special opportunities and advantages. We have tried to provide an atmosphere in which you have been able to develop as persons confident in your ability to assume an effective role in society. Today perhaps more than at any other time in history, there are opportunities for women to participate actively in decision-making, to bring about desirable change in the social order, and to enable the world to experience the effects of their tenderness and compassion.

I hope each of you is going forth a better person because of your days at the Mount and that you will meet courageously the challenges which lie before you.

Sister Mary Albertus

MOUNT SAINT VINCENT UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY MOTTO

The university motto is 'Veritas Ad Deum Ducit' which is translated as 'Truth Leads to God'. The motto asserts the religious concern which inspired the foundations of the university.

COAT OF ARMS

The coat of arms of the university is based on the coat of arms of Blessed Elizabeth Seton, foundress of the congregation of the Sisters of Charity. It bears three silver crescents of the Seton arms within a 'tressure', the same one that is found in the coat of arms of the Province of Nova Scotia. Thus both the foundress of the order whose members operate the university and the Province of Nova Scotia are represented.

The three peaks on the shield signify the name of the University, 'Mount Saint Vincent'. On the upper portion of the shield is the book of learning, between the maple leaves - the emblem of Canada.

The dove, above the wreath symbolizes the Holy Spirit, indicating that knowledge is the only means to wisdom, the highest gift of God.

The colors of the shield are blue and gold - gold symbolizing the Divinity of our Lord and the blue for Our Blessed Lady. The periphery of the coat of arms is colors of royal blue and azure, the dual blues of Mount Saint Vincent University.

DEAN OF STUDENTS: SISTER MARIE GILLAN

On behalf of the students, the staff of the 1977 yearbook would like to take this opportunity to thank Sister M. Gillan for her continued concern and interest.

Sister Marie has been Dean of Students for the past five years and in that time has become a friend to many of us.

Although the Mount community will indeed feel her absence we, the students wish Sister Marie sincere best wishes on her future endeavours.

A Soft Touch

As you meld into an era of peace, realize that a change in attitude and establishment of positive values in life are necessary for its preservation.

Involvement, a magic word of the sixties, should not lose it's meaning at this time. Rather it should become for all a means of attaining these goals.

As each of you seek to make your contribution, may faith, love, integrity and belief in oneself direct you.

"Hold on for what you believe in,

Hold on, don't let it

fade,

Still, you've got to be strong

find yourself a reason

You may never change

the world

but just the same

Hold on, be strong,

each and every day."

Dan Hill,

Congratulations Class

Editor's Message

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my sincere congratulations to all my fellow graduates, and best wishes and good luck for the future.

Hope you find Janus '77 a collection of fond memories that you can cherish and look back on in many years to come.

Putting this book together was certainly no easy task, but then again, anything worthwhile doing, usually isn't easy. In particular, I would like to thank Margie and Eileen for their continued patience, time and hard work. And to my entire staff, a sincere thank you! Without you this book would not have been possible.

To Laurie and Jeff, who spent many long hours in the dark room supplying us with pictures . . .

To our advertisers, patrons, and subscribers, thank you for making Janus 1977 become reality.

Sincere warm wishes and happiness always,
Jose Tremblett

JANUS

The name of this yearbook is Janus, after the Roman God of beginnings, openings, entrances, doorways: of public gates through which roads passed and of private doors. His insignia were thus the key that opens and closes the door and the stick which porters employed to drive away those who had no right to cross the threshold. He had two faces, allowing him to see both interior and exterior, entrance and exit, forward and backward. Being God of the gates, he was naturally God of departure and return and by extension, the God of all means of communication. Janus was also God of the beginnings. He was considered promoter of all initiative and was placed at the head of all human enterprises.

The years at university are both a beginning and an ending. Graduation symbolized an exit from university life and an entrance into the working world. As we look forward into the future, we are also looking back on these years at Mount Saint Vincent.

Joanne Jellett.

But just wait 'til Monday.

To all those students (and that one prof) who now have bank balances between 7 cents and $1.21, due to a rash of spending for fun, frivolous Homecoming things, we'd just like to say one thing at this time: Enjoy!

Let's talk.
