SAINT
VINCENT UNIVERSITY

Dear Mount, a hymn of praise
From our full hearts we raise
    Lauding life's spring.
Gazing down vistas fair ---
Years arched with graces rare ---
Safe neath thy sheltering care,
    Where Christ was King.
- 1st verse of
  "A Song to the Olden Days"

snm

Each and every student attending Mount Saint Vincent University came in their first year with a variety of expectations. My distorted expectations of university life were shattered after my first few months at the Mount. Loneliness often overshadowed the fresh independence I was supposed to feel as a "university student," residence rules destroyed my visions of unconditional freedom, professors expected me to support my opinions with more than proper grammar, and new friends had to be earned just the same as old chums had been.

The fact that I, along with the other members of the Class of '84, matured, learned, and worked to reach our goal of graduation, is a tribute both to us and to the University.

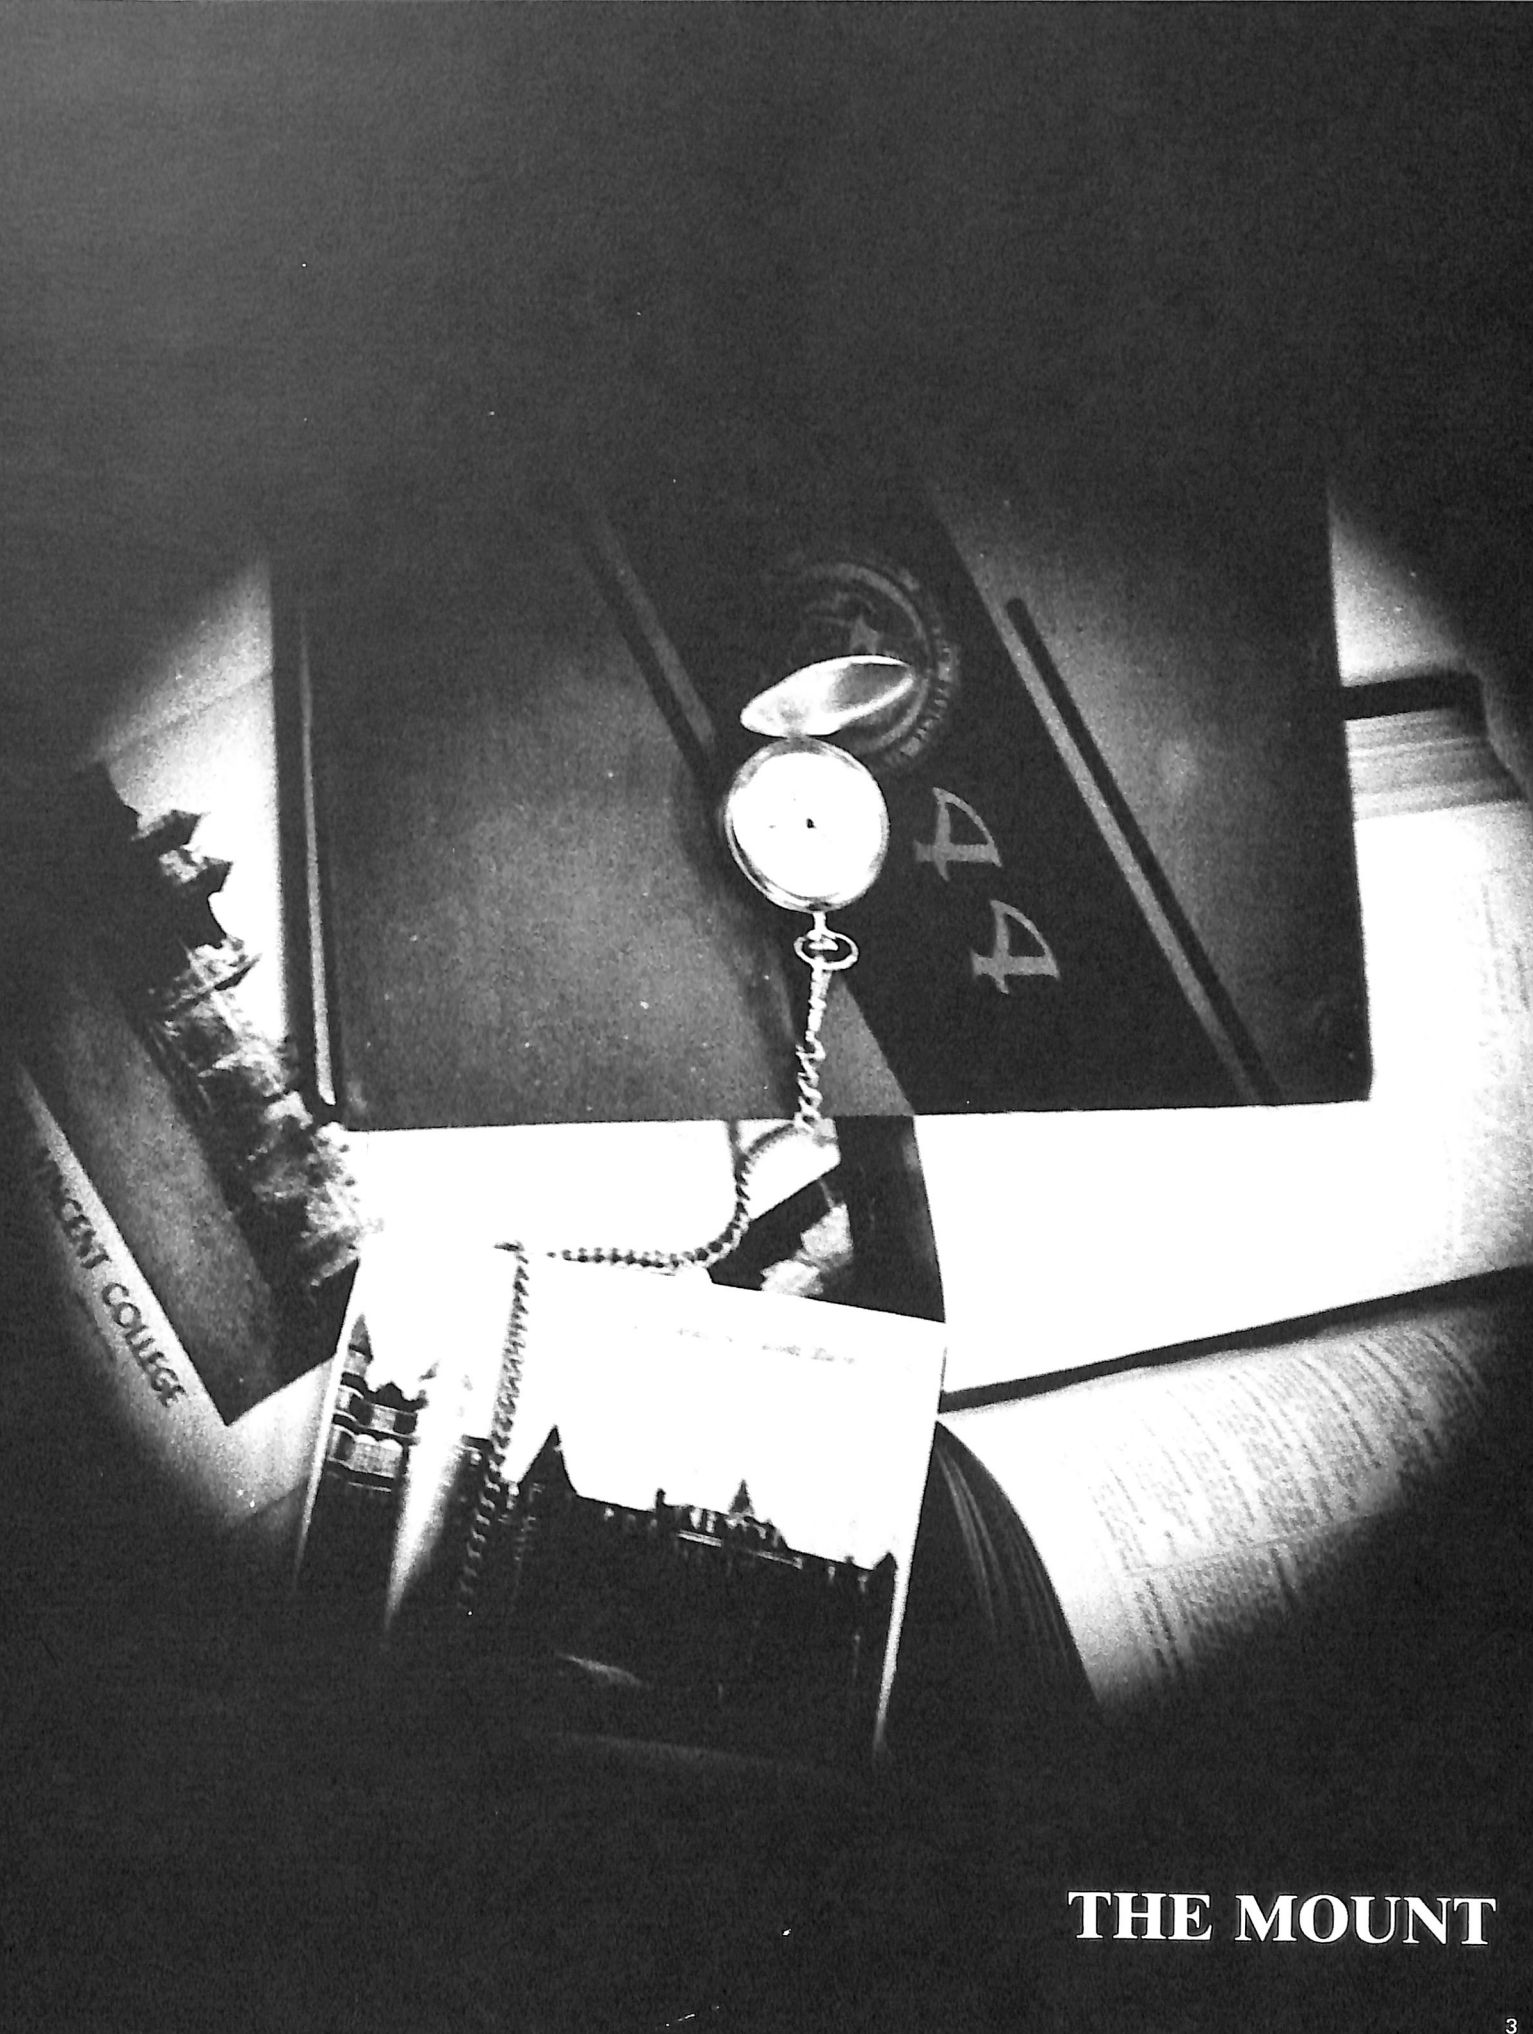

It is a safe assumption that our memories of days spent at M.S.V.U. will become fonder as time clouds the long hours of study, the pressure of exams, and the pains of adjusting to a new environment and as it illuminates the good times had, the friendships shared, and the true value of our experiences here.

There are those of us who will look back and wish we would have put our time at the Mount to better use. Regardless of the extent of our individual contributions; however, as graduates of M.S.V.U. we have experienced its rich heritage and have taken part in further development of the legacy for future students. Appreciating this heritage, including the roots of the university philosophy, the contributions made by a variety of individuals and the history of the now familiar buildings and symbols, is necessary to fully appreciate the role the Mount has played in each of our lives. Whatever we have acquired from this university can only be seen as the result of combined forces: our own and those of Mount Saint Vincent University. As we justifiably feel proud of ourselves we must also be proud of our University and the history that made it what it has come to be.

THE MOUNT

A Glance at Our Heritage

THE MOUNT IN 1874.

THE MOUNT IN 1904.

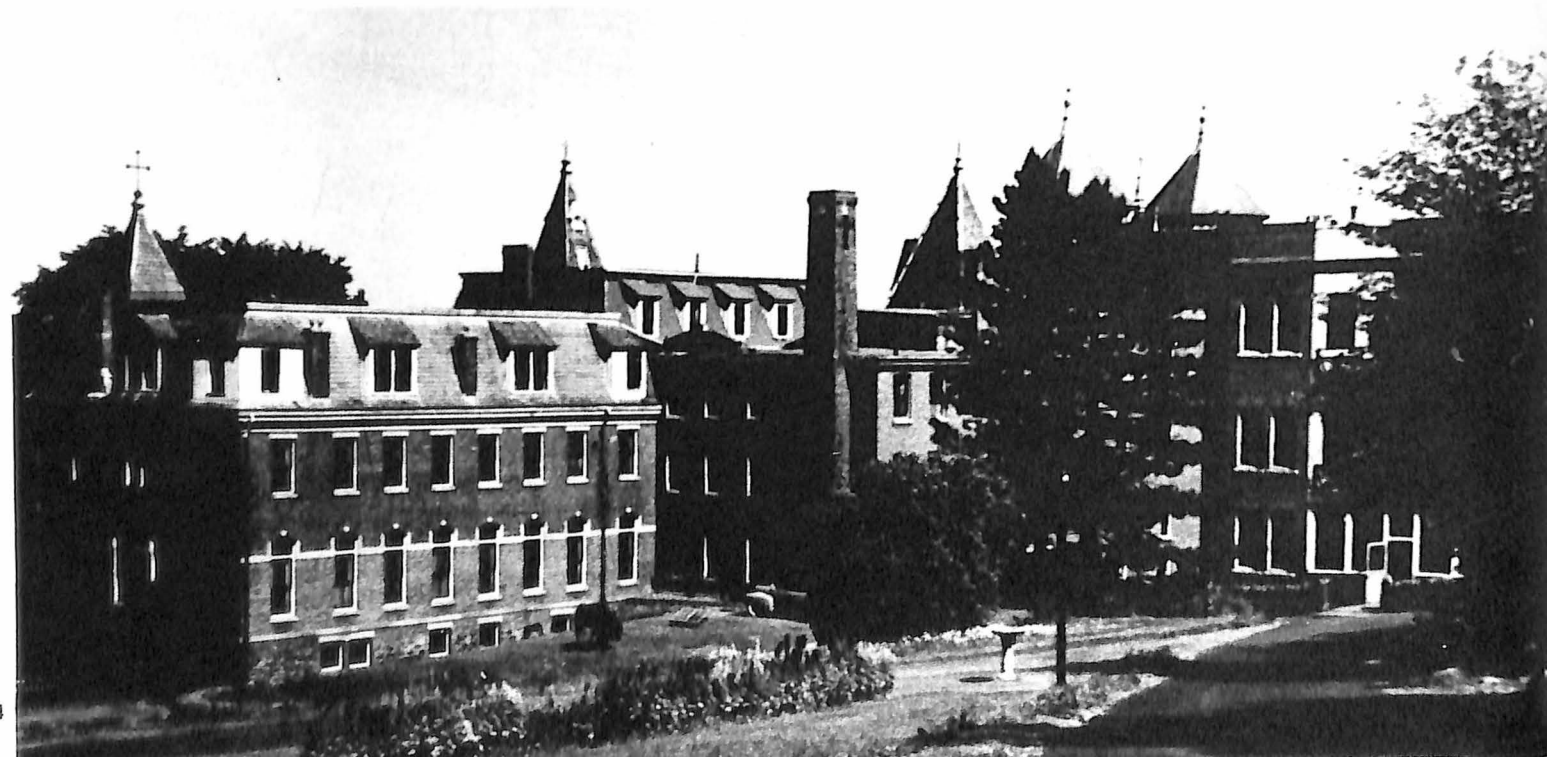

The Sisters of Charity established Mount Saint Vincent Academy in 1873 providing girls with elementary and secondary schooling.

By 1914, the need for post-secondary education was becoming increasingly evident, and a 25-year agreement with Dalhousie University was signed. Under this agreement the Mount supplied the first two years of a bachelor program and the final two years and the degree were given by Dalhousie.

The Nova Scotia legislature awarded Mount Saint Vincent with a college charter in May 1925. M.S.V.C. was then able to grant degrees in the arts, sciences, and music.

Until 1949, the Mount received no financial support from beyond the Sisters of Charity congregation, who solely owned and operated the institution.

It was on January 31, 1951, that the combined complex of Motherhouse and College was destroyed by fire. But, by September of the same year, the new college building, Evaristus Hall, was ready for students.

Enrolment grew and in 1966 two new buildings were added to the campus, Assisi Hall and Rosaria Hall. Also in that year a revision of the college charter was approved and the College became Mount Saint Vincent University.

Seton Academic Centre, providing classrooms, offices, an Art Gallery, and a 1000 seat theatre in the round, was functional in 1971. A new five-year agreement between Dalhousie and MSVU, on an association-as-equals basis, was signed. The Mount admitted undergraduate men for the first time to facilitate the agreement.

The Birches, five townhouse residences, were built in 1972, and Rosaria Centre was officially opened on March 14, 1981.

OUR PRESIDENTS

MOTHER M. EVARISTUS

Mother Evaristus, the first president of Mount Saint Vincent College, served from 1938 to 1944. She had been directly involved in the affiliation with Dalhousie in 1914 and had been a major influence in the application for the College Charter granted in 1925. The completion of Evaristus Hall was also largely due to her efforts.

Sister Maria Rosaria

While in office from 1944 to 1954, Sister's main efforts on behalf of the College were in the field of scholarship. She wrote numerous articles published in the classical journals and earned international commendation for her dissertation on "The Nurse in Greek Life".

Sister Francis d'Assisi

Being installed in 1954 and remaining in office until 1965, allowed this president plenty of time to instigate changes for M.S.V.C. Some of those changes were: including the Mount in the University Teacher Training Program of Nova Scotia; introducing graduate studies in English and Education; initiating steps for a new charter; completing plans for the building of Assisi and Rosaria Halls; and moving toward adoption of the present Coat of Arms.

Sister Alice Michael (Dr. Catherine Wallace)

Sister Alice Michael served the Mount as its president from 1966 to 1974, overseeing a number of developments. She was responsible for the formation of the new Charter. She also provided for a new Board of Governors and faculty Senate; planned the major expansion of library, science, and administration facilities; introduced a new program of Continuing Education for Women; and introduced the special women's collection of books by and about women.

Sister Mary Albertus

Mount Saint Vincent's fifth president was installed in 1975 and remained as president until 1978. Sister Mary Albertus was born in Massachusettes but came to Nova Scotia to earn her undergraduate degree. With a rich educational background, as both student and teacher, she was a definite asset to the Mount.

Dr. E. Margaret Fulton

Dr. Fulton became the Mount's first non-Catholic, lay president in 1978. She earned her undergraduate degree at the University of Manitoba and received her Ph.D. in Victorian Literature at the University of Toronto. Our president is well-known for her efforts in the movements for world peace and equality for women. Her devotion to Mount Saint Vincent University is undeniable and her dedication to her beliefs, her energy, and her enthusiasm should be an inspiration to us all.

TIDBITS OF TRIVIA

Rules taken from a Student Handbook used in the early 1960's.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

There shall be no visiting of rooms after 10:00 p.m. Permission for late study is to be asked of the Dean.

DINING ROOM

Dinner is served in the Dining Room at 5:45 p.m. For the evening meal, students are expected to dress - informal dresses take the place of sweaters and skirts and dress shoes replace sports and saddle shoes.

Should it be necessary to leave the Dining Room before the end of a meal, a student shall excuse herself to the Student Council President in the absence of any faculty member.

ABSENCE FROM CAMPUS

Permission for off-campus leave must be obtained by all.

Seniors may have off-campus privileges any day of the week until 8:45 p.m. provided they register in person on their departure or return.

Students whose homes are at a distance shall visit only those families for whom their parents have given written permission.

All off-campus privileges are dependent on scholastic standing.

HOLIDAYS

On November 28, 1983, the Mount Senate passed a motion declaring January 31 as the President's Holiday to be recognized by the University community.

There have been several different days observed as holidays since the installation of the Mount's first President in 1938.

October 26 was called Feast Day or President's Day and was a special day on campus until 1944.

December 8 or December 10 had been named as President's Holidays during the period from 1944 to 1954.

October 26 regained recognition in honour of Mother Evaristus and was called Foundress Day, from 1954 to 1966.

From 1967 to 1983 a specific day was not declared and a holiday was granted at the President's discretion.

TRADITIONS LOST

Big and Little Sister Ceremony

Each upperclassman adopted a "little sister" from the incoming class. The "little sisters" would each light a candle from the flame of the "big sister's" candle, signifying the passing on of wisdom which the "big sister" had received at the University.

Capping Ceremony

Mount Saint Vincent University had preserved the scholarly tradition of wearing cap and gown. Very early in the academic year, new students were formally accepted in the University community by being officially capped by the College President.

WHAT'S THE PICARO?

It is the name of our University's student newspaper of course and the meaning behind the term is interesting.

"Picaro" refers to the hero of early Spanish literature. The Picaro is a person who roams about the countryside, retaining the ideas and philosophies expressed by the people he encounters. From these various ideas he divulges his own philosophy.

VERITAS AD DEUM DUCIT

The University motto, which is translated as “Truth Leads to God” is only one of the many aspects of M.S.V.U. that poses greater meaning for those who can appreciate its origin. The motto asserts the religious concerns which inspired the foundation of the University.

COAT OF ARMS

The Coat of Arms of the University is based on the Coat of Arms of Venerable Elizabeth Seton, foundress of the Congregation of the Sisters of Charity. It bears three silver crescents within the “treasure.” The same “treasure” is found on the Coat of Arms granted to Nova Scotia in 1625, so the Community Foundress and the Province are represented. The three peaks on the shield signify the name of the University, “Mount” Saint Vincent. The book, a symbol of learning, is positioned between two maple leaves - the emblem of Canada. Above the book is a dove, symbolizing the Holy Spirit, and indicating that knowledge is only a means to Wisdom, the highest gift of God.

The colors of the shield are blue and gold. Gold symbolizes the divinity of our Lord and blue is for our Blessed Lady. The periphery of the Coat of Arms is royal blue and azure, the dual blues of Mount Saint Vincent University.

UNIVERSITY LOGO

The design of a new symbol, to represent the University along with the Heraldic Crest, was approved in January 1971.

The symbol, created by Eagles and Radcliffe Ltd., skillfully combines the letters “M”, “V”, and “U” to provide a distinctive pattern that is visually appealing and easily remembered. The addition of two circles above this pattern immediately adds warmth and the awareness that the symbol portrays as well.

This, it was felt, was the essence of a university; young people, alert people who are working together towards common objectives.

YEARBOOK HISTORY

Just as Mount Saint Vincent University has grown and changed so has the appearance, content, and name of the yearbooks produced to commemorate each passing year.

Names of past volumes have included: Kappa Kronicle, Phoenix, Memories, and Katina. The present title, Janus, has only been used since 1976, but its relevance should assure it a long life on the cover of the book of memories of our years at Mount Saint Vincent University.

Janus was the Roman God of beginnings, openings, entrances, doorways; of public gates through which roads passed and of private doors. Being the God of Gates, he was naturally the God of departures, returns, and by extension, the God of all means of communication.

As a yearbook then, Janus represents a departure from the university, as we achieve our goal of graduation, and also a means of returning to it, through memories captured in the words and photos found here. We look to the Janus insignia as a symbol of our progression to the future, and the many thresholds we have yet to cross, and as a symbol of those doors through which we have already passed gaining confidence, wisdom, and pride.

Office of the President

TO THE CLASS OF 1984

How does one congratulate a class that is graduating in 1984? Are you doomed to experience the Orwellian nightmare? Clearly we already live in a technological, highly bureaucratized, and controlled mass society. The present age is characterized by increasing unemployment, economic recession, ecological disasters, escalating wars, and electronic surveillance. Are there, then, no alternatives to the doomsday forecasts? I believe one can and must face the future with hope and the determination to write a different scenario for the human race.

You will not do that by ignoring the harsh realities of modern society. Only by recognizing the imperatives of conscious change can we bring about the transformation of society. The dawning of that new age of "Aquarius" will only come as you graduates of the Class of 1984 accept the challenge of creating a new society where all of our technological expertise is made to work for positive human values rather than allowing it to victimize and destroy us.

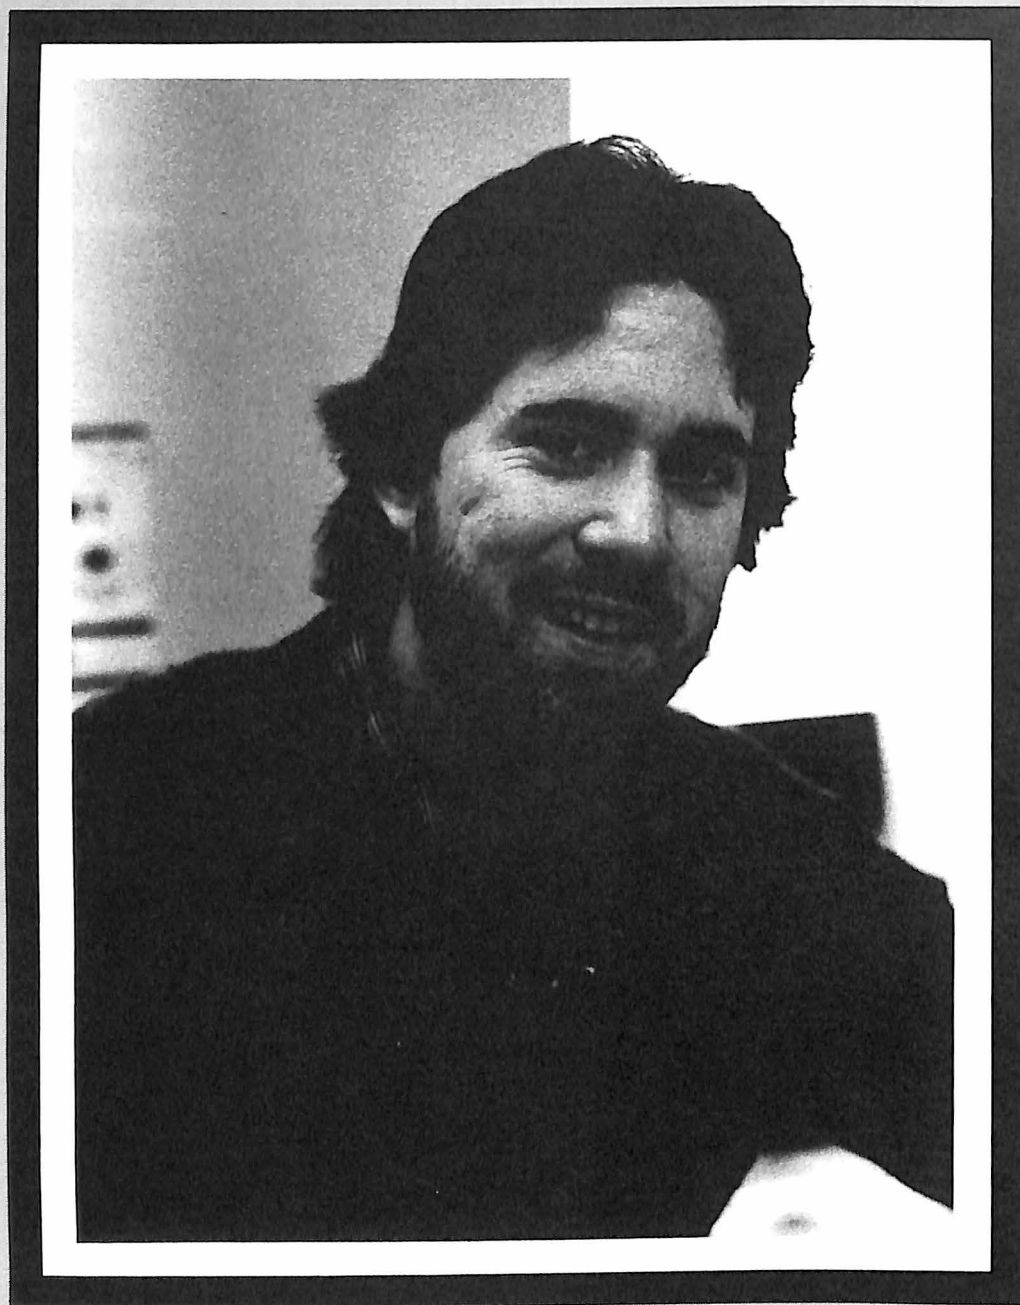

Mount Saint Vincent University has tried to create an environment which does focus on those values which will give you the needed energy, faith and courage to challenge and change the old order, the negative systems and strangling structures which limit human development. You are spiritual as well as mental and physical beings. If you are able to use the knowledge you have gained from your courses at the Mount to inform both your mind and spirit, then you are indeed to be congratulated upon your graduation. Such coherence, such totality of experience, will lift you above the limitations of a lifestyle of self-gratification. Rather it will give you that needed medicine within to be able to dedicate yourselves to service to others and thus effect the transformation of Orwellian nightmares into Aquarian dawns.

Sincere good wishes to you all as you face the future.

STUDENT UNION

I would like to extend my congratulations to all of you who make up this 1983/84 Graduating Class from Mount Saint Vincent University. Although we are a small University, the number of graduates is increasing at a dramatic rate. Be proud of the accomplishment you have attained.

I know some of you must be a little worried that you must now face the obligations associated with the working class, but don't be. Attack the future with the same enthusiasm which brought you this far, and don't be surprised when you find out how easy it truly can be.

I must stress one point. Don't feel that since you are now alumnae that you cannot partake in the activities of the Mount in years to come. Your participation will always be welcome and what better way to keep in touch than to actually drop in.

I sincerely hope this 83/84 year was as rewarding for all of you as it was for me. I would like to extend a warm thanks to the Graduating Class Co-Presidents, Sue Tracey and Kerri Moorhead, who did a fine job.

Fortunately, I understand the basic assumption: if the letter is too long, nobody will read it. Therefore, I would like to end this address to you, a member of an elite group, with a smile and a quote:

"The universities... serve the national cause in so many ways... that theirs must be regarded as the finest of contributions to national strength and unity."

- The Massey Commission

Strive to be the BEST and if you fall a little short and end up GREAT - great is not that bad. It has been a pleasure working with you this year and I wish you my best.

Sincerely,

A SONG OF M.S.V.
(To the air of Auld Lang Syne)

I
O hill and halls of girlhood's days
How fair ye are to me!
O let the heart pour forth in praise
A song to M.S.V.

II
We all have known these happy hours
So dear to memory
We all have roamed beneath the boughs
Of dear old M.S.V.

III
For M.S.V. O where be
The symphony of praise,
The joyous singing chorus now
From the old days.

IV
In work and prayer, in morning rain
So fled those days
The heart is full of joy and pain
To the old days of M.S.V.

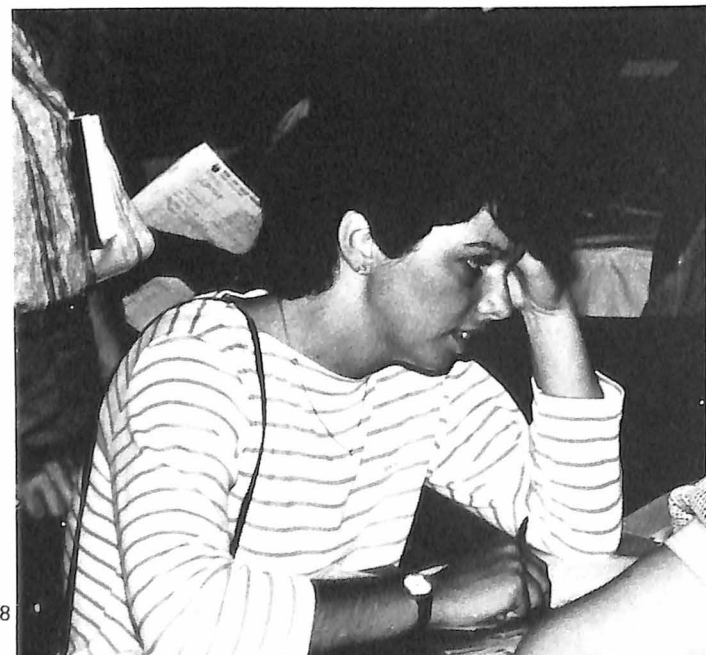

V
And though the days are long and we
Are far from home
In the world we will be glad
To be at home.

REGISTRATION

"Are all those people in the line up?" "But I don't want any 9 o'clock classes." "Do I really need this course to get my degree?"

Comments and questions like these are common during registration, which began September 8. For frosh and returning students alike, registration was a taste of the nervous frustration, confusion, pressure, and also the guidance and satisfaction they would experience throughout the coming year.

ORIENTATION

Orientation Week is packed with activities to welcome frosh to the Mount and to give everyone else a chance to enjoy themselves before the workload begins to chain legs and arms to desks and bookshelves.

This year, orientation events were scheduled from September 7 until September 17. The President's Dinner, Monte Carlo Night, Pub Mingles, a bus tour, and a beach party were some of the events planned to harness the excess energy noticeable around campus and to acquaint frosh with their university and new friends.

PRESIDENTS' ASSEMBLY

This year's Presidents' Assembly was held on Wednesday, October 5, in conjunction with National University's Week. The Presidents' Assembly brought together students and faculty to make students, particularly those in their first year, aware of what it takes to make the university run.

The special guest speaker was futurist Ruben Nelson, who emphasized that "university should have a passionate commitment to the life of the mind." The C.F.B. Stadacona Band was also present.

This year's Assembly was hosted by President E. Margaret Fulton, Mike MacLean (Student Union President), Dr. John Morgenstern (Faculty Association President), Debbie Pottie Matheson (Alumnae Association President), and Joan Lownie (Staff Association President). The Assembly was followed by a light lunch in Rosaria Centre.

ALL HALLOWS EVE

When darkness fell across the land,
The party hour was close at hand.
Thirsty creatures crept upon the Mount,
A terrorizing number we could not count.
All those that were to be found,
Were filled with the spirit of getting down,
And near mortals cried in a shrill,
All Hallows Eve was such a thrill.

TOGAAA! V

Friends, Romans, Countrymen, Lend me your ears! 'Twas on a November eve that the fair maidens of Evaristus Hall once again relived the spirit of Caesar. Many a Roman partook in great merriment at the gala event in the Rosaria Coliseum.

RECREATION

The Athletics/Recreation department offered a diversified selection of activities and programs this past year. Aerobics and intramurals were very popular. The instructional programs in jazz, wendo, yoga, and karate also proved successful. The various clubs: badminton, netball, gymnastics, and jogging attracted many keeners and those competitively inclined could participate in the intercollegiate sports program. A new program, Health Screen, gave people the opportunity to evaluate their levels of fitness and health. It was designed to give valuable facts and tips on how to improve health, as well.

Student Union and Alumnae threw down the gauntlet. In mid-October a series of Trivial Pursuit tournaments began, challenging teams from all areas of the university community. The competition was not without laughter, often as a strategy ploy, but when all was said and done the Alumnae team emerged as Trivial Champions.

MISSING: Carolyn Covey, Sharleen Whittier, Nancy Lyons.

Women's soccer is getting better and becoming more competitive nationwide, and the Nova Scotia College Conference experienced no exceptions.

The Mount ended the regular season in third place. The team met up with the University College of Cape Breton in the semi-finals of the Conference Championships, losing to their closest rivals, 2-0. Despite the loss, the final game typified the strong team effort the Mystics displayed throughout the season.

Rachel Bachman, Carolyn Covey, and Heather Oursin were selected as members of the All-Conference team.

VOLLEYBALL

MISSING: Shelly Miller.

For the third year in a row, the Mount dominated the volleyball court. The Mystics had a league record of 17 wins and only 1 loss and they went undefeated in Conference Championship play. The team's successful season earned them a trip to the Nationals in Montreal, March 20 to 25.

Nanette Elsinga was named to the All-Conference team and was honoured with the title of All-Canadian at the National Championships.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

It was a tough season for the Women's Basketball Team. They had few wins to show for their time and effort but player improvement resulted as a reward, and should definitely prove useful in building a winning team next year.

Kathleen Hernon was selected to the All-Conference team.

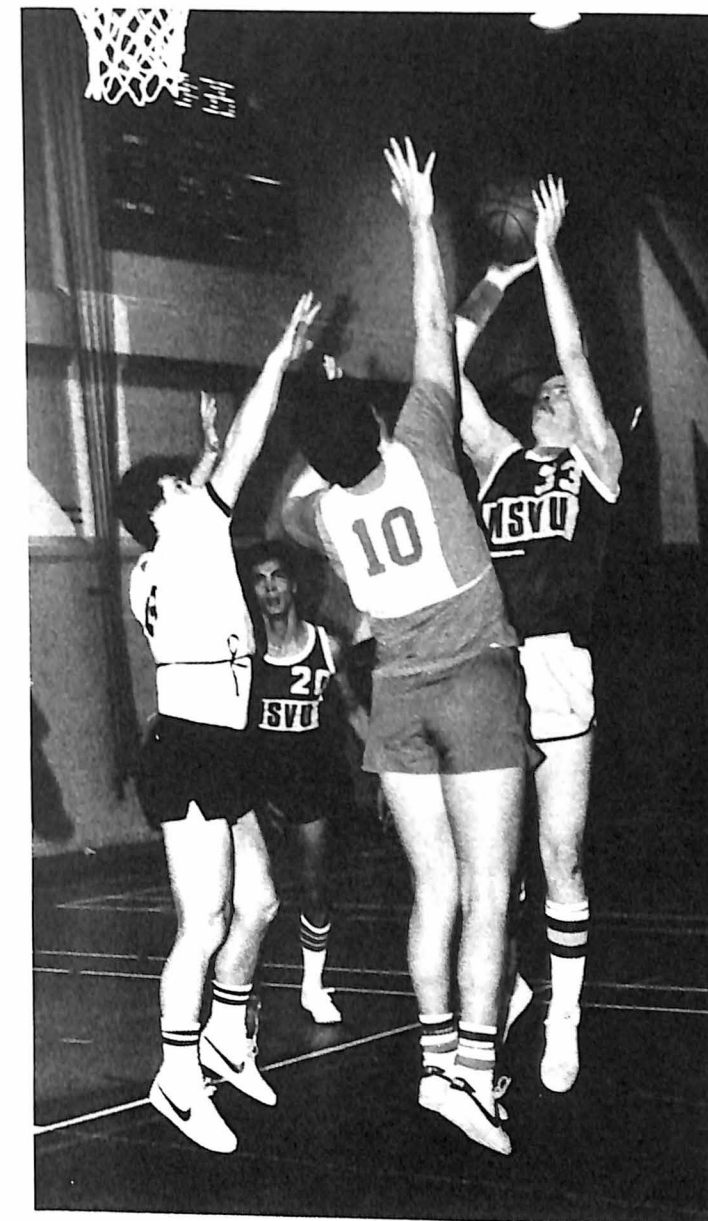

FRONT ROW: Kathleen Hernon, Kathy Naugler, Johna Thorne.
BACK ROW: Sue Terry, Alice Sandall, Joyce Veinot, Kristie Acker, Andrea Brinton, Kathie Wheadon-Hore, Coach.
MISSING: Camilla Doyle, Judy MacNeil.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

For the second year running, the Mount has had a men's basketball team. This year was spent learning the finer points of the art of basketball.

The team competed in the Dalhousie Intramural League and played several exhibition games. Although the team seldom came out on top, their great enthusiasm and keen spirit boosted their overall improvement.

BADMINTON

1983-84 marked a winning season for the M.S.V.U. Badminton Team. They competed in four tournaments during the regular season on November 19, November 26, January 14, and February 11, placing second, first, first, and third respectively.

At the Nova Scotia College Conference Championships, March 3, the Mount Mystics emerged victorious and the women's doubles team of Anne Hanrahan and Mary Longley, and the men's doubles team of Jerry Shea and W.I. Gim won berths to the Nationals in Montreal.

BACK ROW: Jim Grosvernor, Coach.
MISSING: Mary Longley, Wei Gim, Carolyn O'Brien, Michele Eduardo Espejo.

HOCKEY

The Men's Hockey Team earned the right to play against U.C.C.B. in the College Conference final by defeating King's in the semis.

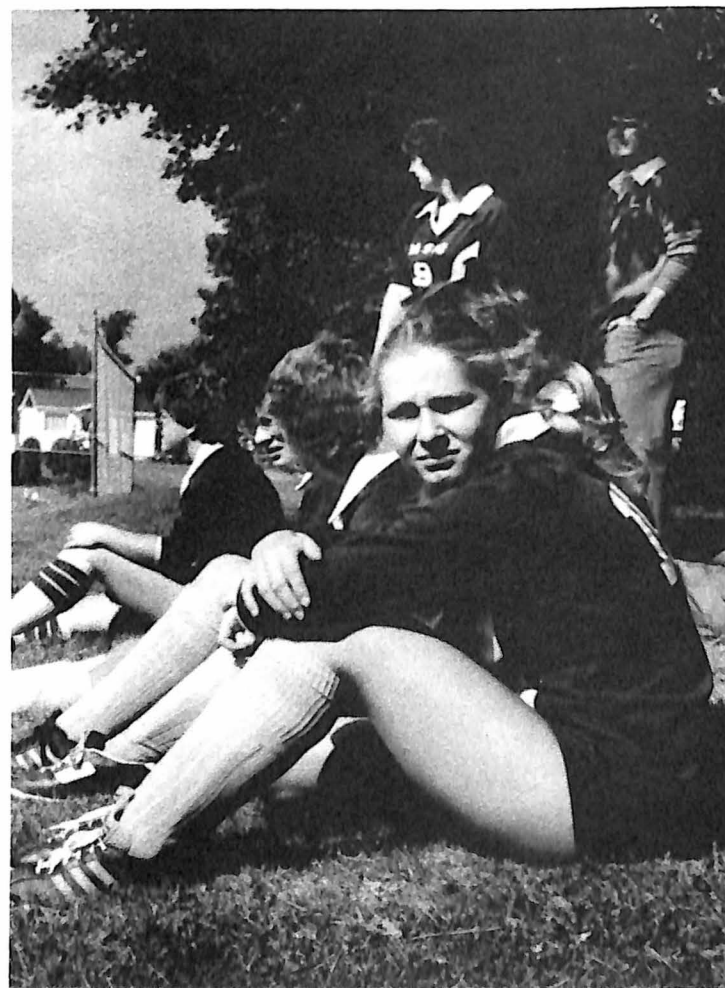

The Capers were strongly favored to win but with only two lines the Mount men played exceptionally well. The score was tied after two periods and was still in reach until the final few minutes when the Capers increased their lead from 4-2 to 6-2, to end the game.

M.S.V.U. played in the Dalhousie Intramural League throughout the season, finishing with a 3-2-2, win-loss-tie record.

FUTURE POWER

In cooperation with the Tidal Power Corporation and the provincial and federal governments, we are proud of the major role we have played in the design and construction of North America's first Tidal Power plant

The Annapolis Tidal Power project will demonstrate the capability of the Straflo Turbine and establish its feasibility for the large scale tidal power development in the Bay of Fundy

In addition, the plant will produce over 50 million kilowatt hours of electricity annually further strengthening our capacity to meet the requirements of new and existing industrial growth.

Annapolis—prototype of future power

God's blessing be with the 1984 graduates. As you mark a milestone on your journey, may your investment in your studies bear fruit for the years ahead.

JANUS STAFF

WE ARE: Johanne Arseneault, Bernadette van Dyk, Joanne O'Brien, Janet Demone, Marianne MacLeod, Jacquie Jean, Rachel Bachman, Kerri Moorhead, Desiree Ward, Lisa Courtney.

Many hands make light work, so the saying goes. Although the hands were often too few, completing this yearbook was work well worth doing and special thanks must be given to some very deserving people, including:

- those staff members who always made that energy-boosting, extra effort
- Melanie Malpass for her support and talent on the typewriter keyboard
- Glenn Craig for his willingness to tolerate last minute demands
- Teresa Francis for her help as an on-location coordinator
- Graham Lavers for his photographic talent and ready words of advice
- Herb Anderson for his patience with too many and often redundant questions
- friends and family for helping with encouragement and moral support.

A MESSAGE TOO VALUABLE TO WITHHOLD

What is Success?

"It's doing the job the best you can,
And being just to your fellow man,
It's making money but holding friends,
And staying true to your aims and ends;
It's figuring how and learning why,
And looking forward and thinking high
And dreaming a little and doing much;
It's keeping always in closest touch
With what is finest in word and deed;
It's being thorough yet making speed;
It's going onward despite defeat
And fighting staunchly but keeping sweet,
It's being clean and it's playing fair,
It's laughing lightly at Dame Despair.
It's looking up at the stars above
And drinking deeply of life and love;
It's struggling on with the will to win
But taking loss with a cheerful grin;
It's sharing sorrow and work and mirth,
And making better this good old earth;
It's serving and striving through strain and stress,
It's doing your noblest - that's success!"

Long be my heart with such roses fill'd!
Like the one in which roses have
once been distill'd:
You may break, you may shatter the vase you will,
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.

- Thomas Moore,
Farewell! But Whenever
